Introduction

What is TaskTimer?

TaskTimer is a versatile study tool designed to personalize your work and break sessions. It features seamless Spotify integration, letting you study to your favorite playlists. You can also tailor your break experience with options like a calming "Quiet Mode," an inspiring "Motivational Mode" with uplifting quotes, or even by uploading your own video for a personalized break. With TaskTimer, you can focus entirely on your studying, free from the usual distractions and urges to reach for your phone.
